THE CENTER FOR THE HISTORY OF POLITICAL ECONOMY (CHOPE):

Since Summer 2008 I have served as the Director of the Center for the History of Political Economy at Duke University. The mission of the Center is to promote and support research in, and the teaching of, the history of economics. It supports an active Fellowship and Visiting Scholars program, a regular Workshop series, a Hope Lunch series for the discussion of work in progress, a Summer in the Archives program for junior scholars, a Summer Institute, and, with Duke University Press, the annual History of Political Economy conference. The Center was founded in 2008 with a significant grant from the John W. Pope Foundation, and the Center has since attracted funding from a variety of sources, listed below as (CHOPE). With the recently awarded Koch grant, Center funding totals approximately $11 million. For more information on the Center, go to http://hope.econ.duke.edu/
